

Improper imputation

A message of the form

The following sub analyses used improper imputation because proper imputation was not computable: 1 2 3 4 5 indicates that there was a problem with the individual analyses. Though the analysis terminated normally, the imputations may be slightly less accurate than they would be had proper imputation been possible. Simplifying your model may allow for proper imputation.